Thank you all for your support during the development of the comic "A Night with Loona".
Today June 30, 2023 I finally finished this first comic. It has been a fun two years.
This comic would not have been possible without the help of all of you, supporting me on patreon, sharing and commenting.

What will happen going forward?
I'll keep doing illustrations as I do every month, don't worry.
The only thing that will be on Pause is this Comic.

There will be no update for 2 months to this comic. July and August 2023.
During this time I will be doing illustrations as I said and writing the next comic, I want to bring something really interesting, funny, and erotic to you.

Stay tuned for the next Comic. Thank you very much.
